

CAROLYN M. BECKETT

Carolyn Beckett specializes in the U.S. and international tax aspects of using alternative structures for the ownership of business and investment property, with particular emphasis on the use of partnerships and other pass-through entities such as trusts and family limited partnerships. Due to Ms. Beckett's extensive background in federal income taxation for both individuals and entities, she brings significant value to the proper analysis of international tax and treaty issues for the firm's multi-jurisdictional clients. She also advises clients concerning the tax considerations involved in the purchase and sale of real estate and the use of like-kind exchanges and other complex arrangements relating to real estate structure and tax issues. Ms. Beckett has experience advising on tax issues for individuals and entities with ties to Australia, the Bahamas, Canada, the Channel Islands of Jersey and Guernsey, China, Costa Rica, the Czech Republic, Dubai, France, Germany, India, the Isle of Man, Israel, Italy, Liechtenstein, Mexico, Nepal, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Oman, Panama, Portugal, Spain, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom. Ms. Beckett is licensed to practice law in Texas and New York, is Board Certified in Tax Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, is licensed as a Certified Public Accountant by the State of Texas, and was named a Texas Super Lawyer in 2004 through 2008 by Law & Politics and Texas Monthly magazines.
